

NPPS 2026

Call for papers

10-11 DECEMBER 2026

HELSINKI, FINLAND

NORDIC PUBLIC POLICY SYMPOSIUM

We invite submissions of papers or paper proposals to the Nordic Public Policy Symposium, to be held on 10-11 December 2026. This year's NPPS is hosted by the Finnish Centre of Excellence in Tax Systems Research (FIT).

We welcome work from researchers based in Nordic countries, or using Nordic data or institutions as part of their analysis. We welcome all topics related to public policy and public economics, such as taxation, social insurance, inequality, health, education, regulation, labor markets, firms and innovation or environmental and climate policy. A share of the slots will be reserved for early-career researchers.

We are very pleased to have Johannes Spinnewijn from the London School of Economics as the keynote speaker of NPPS 2026.

Contact: fit.events@tuni.fi

DEADLINE

Please send your paper/paper proposal by

October 11th

to: fit.events@tuni.fi

Accepted presenters will be notified by October 25th.

FUNDING

The symposium is free of charge. Travel costs can be covered for speakers.

To foster interactions, we ask that participants stay for the entire duration of the event.

Financed by Nordforsk, FIT and Tampere University.

MORE INFORMATION

<https://verotutkimus.fi/en/npps-2026/>

Organizers

Kaisa Kotakorpi, Tampere University, FIT

Jarkko Harju, University of Glasgow, Tampere University, FIT

FINNISH CENTRE OF
EXCELLENCE IN TAX
SYSTEMS RESEARCH